

CHILD FIND POLICY

Children with disabilities are not always visible. In some cases, parents are not even aware of the fact that their child has a disability and are also unaware of services that are available to assist them. Our school is interested in meeting the needs of all children, including those with disabilities. If you know of a child who may have disabilities, please contact the School Administrator for more information.